

Discussion Questions

Yesteryear

by Caro Claire Burke

1. How did your opinion of Natalie change over the course of the book?
2. Do you engage with accounts like Natalie's on social media?
3. Did reading about curated posts change how you view your own feed?
4. Does Natalie admire or envy Reena's choices?
5. Is Natalie aware of her own delusion by the end?
6. How did their reversed gender roles impact their success?
7. How does their marriage challenge traditional roles?
8. Is Natalie fulfilled or trapped by public attention?
9. Would Caleb's political career have changed everything?
10. How do Natalie and Doug manipulate each other?
11. How does the campaign reflect modern politics?
12. What does "the Inheritance" represent?
13. What role does kindness play in the novel?
14. What changes in the 1800s version of their life?
15. Why doesn't Natalie recognize her later children?
16. What is the cost to the children?
17. Is Natalie's faith genuine?

18. Was Natalie ever truly happy?
19. What led to the Shannon incident?
20. What does the ending suggest about the future?

Questions by Publisher
PrincetonBookReview.com